DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 16 recites the limitation of the drug and excipient being in the vessel for at least 18.5 hours. Claim 17 recites the limitation of the mixing step being conducted for about 18.5 hours to two days. The Examiner submits that these limitations are new matter. The only reference to time in the Specification is a "manufacturing time.....normally 2 days" in paragraph [0032]. The term "manufacturing time" may include many steps that are used to "manufacture" the product. Therefore, the term is not specifically a mixing time (claim 17) and does not specify that the materials were actually mixed for 18.5 hours (claim 18) as being claimed by Applicant.

Inventorship

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Art Unit: 1743

5. Claims 1 and 6-15, 18 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Slowey et al. (US 2005/0255049) in view of Brown (5,853,894).

Slowey teaches a method of making a pharmaceutical aerosol formulation. The method includes mixing formoterol with a bulking agent in a high pressure mixer (Paragraphs [0029]-[0040]). Slowey teaches coating elements of the formulation dispenser with PVDF or PFA in Paragraphs [0041]-[0042], but does not teach coating the reaction vessel.

Brown teaches a coating that may be placed on the operational surface of a laboratory vessel (column 3, lines 50-67) and/or metal container (col. 5, lines 10 and 54-55). The coating may be PVDF or PFA (col. 5, lines 40-68). The vessel or container having the coating has extremely low surface energy and resists solvent attack (Abstract). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the coating from Brown with the mixing vessel of Slowey. One would add the coating from Brown to provide the low energy operational surface. This would prevent material in the vessel from sticking to the sides when being removed from the vessel.

Response to Arguments

6. The Examiner has lifted the previous 112 and 102 rejections in response to Applicant's amending of the claims. The Examiner has now provided a new rejection under Slowey in view of Brown.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Banerjee et al. (6,667,344) and Briggner et al. (5,874,063) teach methods of making a pharmaceutical formulation containing formoterol.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dwayne K. Handy whose telephone number is (571)-272-1259. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 8:00-4:30.
